About PCAA

Introduction

Welcome to Personnel Certification and Assessment Association (PCAA)

Introduction

We are a provider of personnel assessment and credentialing to specialist industries and professions globally.

PCAA provides Personnel certification that is accredited by KAB(Korea Accreditation Board) for ISO based standards against ISO 17024 and also Industrial based regulation.

VISION

Our vision is to provide recognition of your capabilities, improving your ability to do business globally.

MISSION

We award credentials to individuals meeting specific competency requirements relating to a profession, an occupation, or particular elements apropos of the job description.

We facilitate the development of your certification criteria against the competencies that an individual needs to demonstrate; and we then ensure that these criteria are held by applicants before certifying them.

We ensure that certification requirements and our credentialing processes meet requirements accepted globally through International standards and best practices.
